Chevron to help bolster Western Australia's major community sporting event

City to Surf organisers today announced that Chevron Australia will be the Naming Rights Sponsor for the Marathon leg in this year's Rebel Sport City to Surf for Activ.

The marathon leg will be known as the Chevron Marathon.

The Rebel Sport City to Surf for Activ is pleased that Chevron has decided to contribute to Western Australia's most iconic sporting event. Sponsorship Director Thomas Wagner said "We are thrilled that Chevron has decided to support the community through the Rebel Sport City to Surf for Activ. We delight in the shared message that the City to Surf and Chevron maintain with respect to the importance of Human Energy".

Chevron managing director, Roy Krzywosinski, said that Chevron was proud to be a part of one of Western Australia's premier community events.

"It is an event that not only promotes fitness, health and wellbeing but it is also a major fundraiser for charity supporting people with disability.

"We are confident that the Chevron Marathon will prove to be a great draw card that will grow in popularity in the coming years"

The inaugural marathon was run last year and proved a popular success boasting the largest field ever assembled for a 42.2 kilometre event in WA.

The 2010 Chevron Marathon will take pride of place in the Australian Road Race Calendar as the richest event with prize money over $80,000.

"Chevron is a world leader in the Oil and Gas industry as well as community development across the globe. Their internationally recognised brand will add strong support to this growing event, and we are very excited about the future of the Chevron Marathon" Wagner said.

The Rebel Sport City to Surf for Activ is Activ's major fundraising event annually. Activ CEO, Tony Vis, said "On behalf of Activ, I am delighted that Chevron has joined as category naming rights sponsor of the Marathon race in the Rebel Sport City to Surf for Activ program. This will make a great contribution to an event that helps Activ to support people with disabilities in Western Australia."

The Rebel Sport City to Surf for Activ, in its 36th year will take place on Sunday August 29. Funds raised by the Rebel Sport City to Surf for Activ will help Activ continue its mission to create a better life for people with disability.
