City to Surf Road Closures - Everybody's Business

The Chevron City to Surf for Activ organisers have once again launched a public awareness campaign for WA's largest community sporting event. Organisers are dedicated to communicating with the public the impact the event will have on travel around Perth on the last Sunday in August, 28th.

The comprehensive campaign includes extensive information for participants, residents, spectators and the broader community. An interactive map is available to identify road closures and alternative routes on race day. This user friendly and easy to navigate interactive map is available from the event website www.perthcitytosurf.com

"We are by far the largest community event in WA, and our impact on the roads is significant. We have committed to leading by example in addressing community concern over traffic issues arising out of the event" Race Director, Chris Letts said.

The combination of road closure information, as well as a clear and concise message to participants to use free public transport to and from the event will place the City to Surf at the forefront of event public awareness in WA.

Working in partnership with Transperth, City to Surf participants and volunteers can avail of free public transport into and out of the city. A free shuttle bus service will operate between the city and City Beach to transport participants, volunteers and spectators in and out of the congested areas.

For detailed information on road closures, alternative routes, parking restrictions and to view the interactive map, visit www.perthcitytosurf.com

The Chevron City to Surf for Activ is Western Australia's largest community event and includes the Marathon, Half Marathon, 12km run/walk, 4km run/walk and 4km wheelchair race. This year the event will be held on Sunday 28 August 2011.
